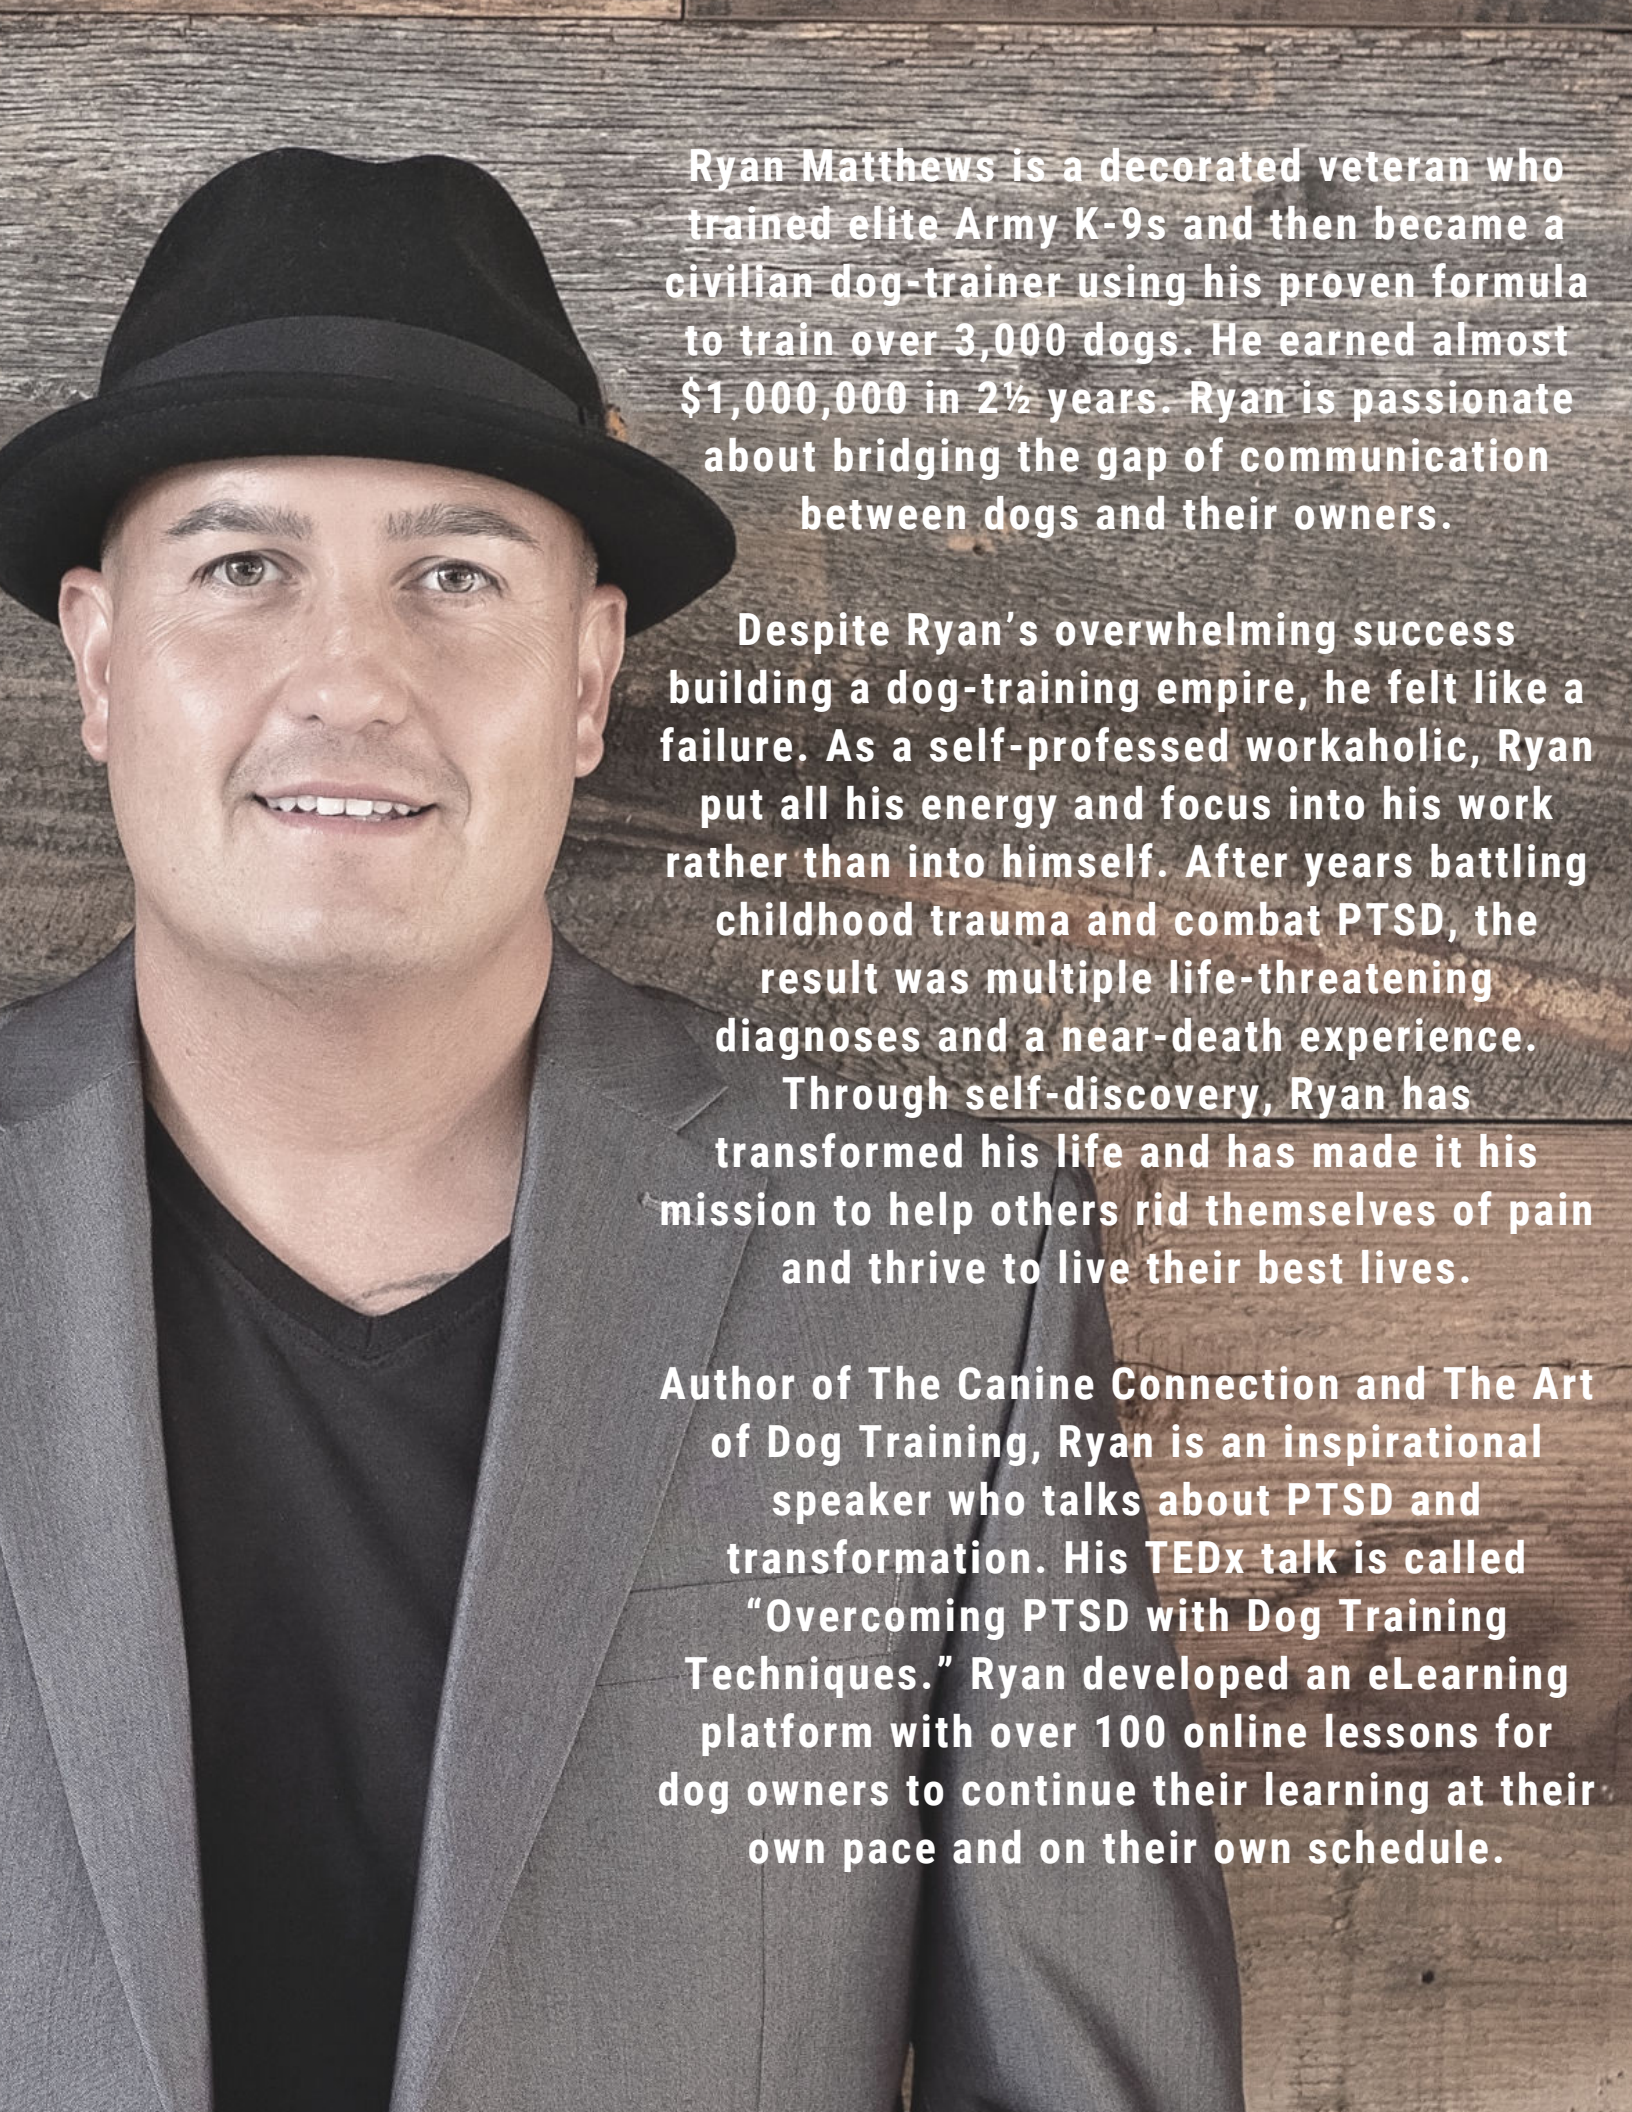
My purpose in life is to share my gifts and talents with as many people and dogs as possible. I want to positively transform lives.

- Ryan Matthews



Ryan Matthews is a decorated veteran who trained elite Army K-9s and then became a civilian dog-trainer using his proven formula to train over 3,000 dogs. He earned almost $1,000,000 in 2½ years. Ryan is passionate about bridging the gap of communication between dogs and their owners.

Despite Ryan's overwhelming success building a dog-training empire, he felt like a failure. As a self-professed workaholic, Ryan put all his energy and focus into his work rather than into himself. After years battling childhood trauma and combat PTSD, the result was multiple life-threatening diagnoses and a near-death experience. Through self-discovery, Ryan has transformed his life and has made it his mission to help others rid themselves of pain and thrive to live their best lives.

Author of The Canine Connection and The Art of Dog Training, Ryan is an inspirational speaker who talks about PTSD and transformation. His TEDx talk is called "Overcoming PTSD with Dog Training Techniques." Ryan developed an eLearning platform with over 100 online lessons for dog owners to continue their learning at their own pace and on their own schedule.

Transform Your Dog's Behavior with the Core 4

Did you know that 80% of the way your dog communicates is non-verbal? It's not about what you say, it's about what you do! Discover the secrets to getting the behavior you want from your dog. Ryan Matthews has developed a proven formula that works for any dog, any issue, and any breed. His Core 4, also known as RCTR, is an easy-to-follow approach that you can implement immediately. This session will teach you how to:

* Discover what your dog’s body language means.
* Communicate with your dog without ever saying a word.
* Enjoy your time with your dog whether at home, at a cafe, at the park, around distractions, or with family and friends.
* Teach your dog any trick or behavior with the Core 4 system.

What Your Dog's Behavior Says about You

Your dog’s behavior says a lot about your current mental state. Using a gentle approach, Ryan Matthews deciphers your dog’s psychology by studying its behavior to bridge the gap between the dog’s behavior and your leadership, confidence, and ability to step into your power. In this session, you will learn how to:

* Be a more confident dog owner, in any situation.
* Be the leader your dog wants you to be.
* Feel empowered to take action not only with your dog but also in your personal life.
* Be proactive and not reactive in life.
* Make the connection between observing your dog’s behavior and giving a self-assessment of your own well being.
